

Le Pupille 2013 Morellino di Scansano

Score 16/20

A Morellino true to the original regulations (meaning: only indigenous grapes, while in 2007 the regulation changed to allow for the inclusion of international varieties). Proper Sangiovese nose with a top note of Moroccan leather. Flattering, supple and medium-bodied palate with rustic tannins. Wonderful daily quaffer. (WS)

Gaja	Dagromis	2011	Barbaresco	3 Mar 2015	17.5	2018 - 2032	Compare
Very pale ruby. Pretty oak and Nebbiolo fruit on the nose. Powerful, but polished tannins matched with a very elegant, fluid palate. Impressive stuff, and nothing feminine about it as the myth has it. (WS) View more detail Compare

95% Nebbiolo, 5% Barbera. Dark, brooding, earthy fruit nose. Impressive compact fruit palate demands much more time and with bags of finely chiselled tannins. Not yet knit together but a beautiful whole. (WS) View more detail Compare
Pieve Santa Restituta (Gaja)	Sugarille	2010	Brunello di Montalcino	3 Mar 2015	17.5	2016 - 2034	Compare
Ripe fruit and posh oak in equal measures, but this has real style because the fruit is not overburdened by the oak. Lots of coating, clay-like tannins. Modern approach with lots of oak yet with real complexity on the finish. (WS) View more detail Compare

Mid ruby with the beginning of orange tinges. Impressive concentration of fruit and oak in equal measures. Lovely mouthful of sweet dark and red fruit with polished tannins and lovely freshness on the finish. Flavours and tannins are literally clinging to the palate. Intensely ripe strawberry nose and a full fruit palate that is surprisingly dry and muscular on the finish. Long and concentrated and firmly tannic but the fruit is already open. (WS)  View more detail Compare
